

Senior EM Corporate Investment Analyst - 15/08/2025 – Project name

Senior Emerging Market Equities Investment Professional – London

We are presently advising a top-performing Emerging Markets strategy, looking to continue their stellar performance by adding a senior emerging markets equities investment analyst to their London-based team.

This role will ideally suit an investment analyst that has significant experience in investing across EM corporate equities and credit on a global basis, ideally targeting candidates at Director-level upwards. Therefore, the ideal candidate will be able to demonstrate the following attributes:

- A proven track record in sourcing, analysing and risk-managing investments across global emerging market equity and debt
- An ability to identify and invest in event-driven/special situations equities and credit
- In-depth fundamental analysis skills coupled with strong communications skills for the generation of trade ideas to present to Portfolio Managers and the Investment Committee

The role will suit a senior investment professional with demonstrable experience analysing global emerging market equity and credit - CEEMEA, LatAm, MENA, APAC, etc. - particularly those within the special situations space.

This is an excellent opportunity to join a highly regarded investment team at one of London's leading credit funds.
